Highlights :

Halloween;

This years activities were a great success. First year Trunk & Treat @ Rowley St Green Building there were 15 vehicles and approx. 250 people attended during the night. Plan for next year with some improvements.

Trick & Treat on Main St well attended. Costume Judging at Town Hall has 100-125 contestants. Five winners awarded Candy baskets and photos taken for Winsted Journal and or Face Book consideration.

After School program at Green Building at a standstill at this point until busing/transportation issues are resolved.

Farmers Market Winter activities usage paper work for Green Building in place. Also moving forward with setting up 015 fund account for Market

Basketball:

Travel basketball Players/Parents/Coaches kick off held at Pearson 11/3
Rec Basketball flyers going out 11/4. Registration dates set for 11/15,11/17,11/18
6:30-8:00 pm Town Hall. Forms will also be on line and on face book.

All other programs are going well.

Christmas on Main St

Will be held first Saturday in December (Dec 3rd). More details to come from Friends of Main St. Santa and photographer have been contacted for event. Necessary materials have been ordered as needed. Jim DiVita will coordinate decorating tree in East End park.

Christmas House /Business Decoration Contest:

Tentative date of 12/22 set for viewing. Registrations due by 12/15. Agreed on 4 categories for judging. (Best store/business, Best Multicolor, Best overall Display, Best White Lights) Tanya to work on flyers and post.

Program Updates:

- Fall Softball Championship game scheduled for 11/3. Coed games to be completed Sunday 11/6
- Soccer completing this week.. Jamie will plan on a report out at December meeting.
- Tanya working on indoor soccer league. Most likely to utilize Pearson after Rec basketball on Saturday afternoon. Start Jan 7th
- Discussion on Mens basketball league payment process. Strategy on payment breakout required . Kurt Root to reach out to teams to get feedback on option(s) which will ensure that payments are received and little to no follow up required.
